The Guide and the Reference Book

This Guide contains information about the daily use of your Bang & Olufsen product. The Reference book contains information about more advanced operation as well as connecting and operating external equipment, it also provides you with an overview of on-screen menus.

We expect your Bang & Olufsen retailer to deliver, install and set up your products. However, the information required to install and set them up is included in the Reference book. This is useful if you move your products or expand your system at a later date.

Index ...

The Reference book also contains an index which refers to this Guide and the Reference book. It can help you find the specific subject you want to know more about.

This chapter describes daily use of your television: how to switch the television on, choose a program and switch the television off.

In addition, it describes two functions that make watching TV easier and more enjoyable:

- The TV list gives you an overview of all your programs, and you can also view a list of programs you have placed in a Group;
- If your television is equipped with an optional motorised stand, you can turn the television.

For further information about Groups, refer to the chapter 'Use Groups' on page 14.

Select a TV program

When you switch the television on, the last program viewed appears on the screen.

Press to switch on the television: TV

Press a program number to go directly to that program: 0-9

Press to change programs one by one: **▲ ▼

Press to switch the television to standby: **•

Pressing 0 swaps between the current TV program and previous TV program.

Bring up a program list

All your TV programs appear on a list, which you can bring up on the screen. The list contains program numbers and names, and can contain up to 99 TV programs. You can also bring up a program list for Groups of programs.

The program list for TV is now called up. It provides you with an overview of all your available TV programs.

Group list ... TV programs selected for a Group also appear in the program lists for all tuned TV programs.
